WMM supports its members by providing opportunities for them to build and amplify their leadership and impact. Through our Member Education Programs, we offer connection to leading innovators, experts, and changemakers who are driving the agenda toward gender equality. In 2018, through our Annual Summit, regional convenings, and other unique learning experiences, we sought to activate our members to be more effective philanthropists and bring their thought leadership and ideas to the broader philanthropic community. Through this programming, we connected members with changemakers and leaders in the field of women's philanthropy to identify funding gaps, spark powerful collaborations, and build strong partnerships.

In 2018, Women Moving Millions launched the pilot of its Philanthropic Leadership Program. This immersive learning journey is designed for WMM members who seek to learn how to be supportive leaders in service of the women and girls' movement, and offers tools to help them play a more impactful role in shaping the way gender lens philanthropy is done. The program seeks to deepen their understanding of and appreciation for the role and impact of women in philanthropy and the power of gender lens investing, introduce a roadmap for impact-driven philanthropy designed to change inequitable systems, offer insights and tools for effective collaboration, and increase their understanding of power dynamics and how to shift power to those on the front lines of social change. Participants meet in a cohort of up to 20 members with renowned guest faculty covering topics ranging from values-based and gender lens investing, to systems change, movement building, leadership development, deep listening, and storytelling for greater gender equality.
