

Vikki Crouse

Senior Manager of Philanthropic Research

Vikki Crouse is a Senior Manager of Philanthropic Research for the Private Donor Group at Fidelity Charitable®, an independent public charity that has helped donors support 382,000 nonprofit organizations with nearly $73 billion in grants.¹ The mission of Fidelity Charitable® is to grow the American tradition of philanthropy by providing programs that make charitable giving accessible, simple, and effective.

Vikki joined Fidelity Charitable in 2022. As part of the Private Donor Group team, Vikki conducts research and creates resources to inform decision-making by Fidelity Charitable donors seeking to provide transformational support for nonprofits.

Vikki has a decade of experience working in the nonprofit sector. Prior to coming to Fidelity Charitable, she worked at NC Child as a research program director. In this role, she provided policy advocates and decision-makers with reliable data and research to better understand child and family well-being.
